Hon. Jesse M. Furman
Judge, Southern District of New York
United States Courthouse
40 Foley Square
New York, NY 10007-1312

Re: United States v. Shmuel Zarzar, 18 Cr. 177 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

I am a licensed social worker at the Federal Defenders of New York, Inc. I have been working with Shmuel Zarzar since February 2018 [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I intend to continue my work with him while he is incarcerated and upon his release.

[REDACTED]

Housing: Mr. Zarzar will return to his mother's residence at [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. I have spoken to his mother and will increase my communications with her at the time Mr. Zarzar is close to his release date.

Employment: Mr. Zarzar is a skilled electrician. We have been in contact with a previous employer, Tzvi Schwartz, who spoke highly of Mr. Zarzar's reliability and work ethic. Mr. Schwartz is willing to help Mr. Zarzar find employment after his release [REDACTED]
[REDACTED].

Public Assistance: Mr. Zarzar had been on Medicaid insurance prior to his incarceration. Upon his release, our office will assist him in re-applying for Medicaid in order to ensure he can attend doctor's appointments [REDACTED].

[REDACTED]

Supportive Case Management: Mr. Zarzar and I plan to correspond via CorrLinks and letters monthly. Through our correspondence, we will discuss: [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] (2) what vocational training he is getting and what additional employment skills are available at the facility at which he is designated; (3) his eventual move to a halfway house and how to prepare for such a transition.

About six months prior to his release, Mr. Zarzar and I will discuss how to adjust to possible half way house placement, release into society and the stress that comes from new beginnings. We will calendar appointments so that this re-entry plan can lead to success [REDACTED]
[REDACTED].

Respectfully submitted,
